Equality Act 2010

Equality Duty Information Report

4 September 2019

Introduction

1. The Equality Act 2010 requires schools to publish information by 6th April each year to demonstrate compliance with the aims of the Public Sector Equality Duty:
  - Information about how the school is promoting equality and eliminating unlawful discrimination for pupils, staff and governors with protected characteristics (or other relevant people with protected characteristics in the school community);
  - Information relating to employees with protected characteristics.
2. The information published in this document is our response to this.

The Public Sector Equality Duty

3. The Public Sector Equality Duty is set out in Section 149 of Equality Act 2010. The 'Duty', as it is known, requires schools to pay due regard to the following, when exercising their public functions:
  - Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Act<sup>i</sup>
  - Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and people who do not share it<sup>ii</sup>
  - Foster good relations between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and people who do not share it<sup>iii</sup>.
4. The full Act is available here.

What we did during the last year

As a school, we take full account of equality and accessibility in our day-to-day policy, decision-making and practice. Where necessary, we put actions in place to address any barriers faced by pupils, parents or governors with protected characteristics. We are working hard to be a good employer of people with protected characteristics.

5. For example, this includes:
  - Training for all staff on Autism.
  - Awareness-raising of Autism with all students.
  - Dyslexia Friendly Award achieved.
  - Anti-Racism campaign.
  - LGBT group for students.
  - Attachment Aware school award.
  - Reasonable adjustments implemented for staff with disability.

Looking ahead - what next

6. We have set equality objectives which will be revised every four years.
7. We will report annually on our progress on meeting these objectives.

i Prohibited conduct:

Direct discrimination occurs when someone is treated less favourably than another person because of a protected characteristic they have or are thought to have, or because they associate with someone who has a protected characteristic.

Indirect discrimination occurs when a condition, rule, policy or practice in your school that applies to everyone disadvantages people who share a protected characteristic.

Harassment is "unwanted conduct related to a relevant protected characteristic, which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that individual".

Victimisation occurs when an employee is treated badly because they have made or supported a complaint or raised a grievance under the Equality Act; or because they are suspected of doing so.

ii The Act specifies that having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity might mean:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic;
- Taking steps to meet the needs of people who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of others;
- Encouraging people who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation by such people is disproportionately low.

iii Having due regard to the need to foster good relations between people and communities involves having due regard, in particular, to the need to (a) tackle prejudice, and (b) promote understanding.
