How you can support your child:

A quiet space to work and a regular routine is vital for students working towards the examination in January. Alongside regular homework, you can support your child by ensuring they know where to find the revision materials. A revision guide for the exam can be purchased via wise pay. They have their class folder to use and there are extensive revision materials available on Moodle.

Moodle:

All lessons and resources are available to students on Moodle – Business and Economics – Enterprise and Marketing – has extensive help material is located under individual units (R067, R068, R069). It is vital that if students are away from school that they catch up on the lessons that they have missed. Work is also sent through Class Charts for students.
